HOME HAPPENINGS

won't be long now until the joyous springtime is back on the job.

Wednesday evening with Miss Lucy Ruggles at her home on Court street.

The Normal College Athletic Association has arranged to purchase a part of the gymnasium equipment to discarded by the Youngatown Y.

-The stereopticon lecture which was to have been given in the Christ-ian church Thursday evening was postponed until next Monday night. The public invited.

-Clarence Larkin has sold his purchasing a small farm.

-H. L. Givin has sold his farm of 32 acres on the southern border of the village to G. C. Reed, who, with his son Harold, will shortly take charge of same. Consideration,

-The will of Mrs. George Kimerle, who died recently at her home in Canfield, has been offered for probate Her property is bequeathed to her husband who is named as executor of the estate.

-Thomas Ruscitto was given a party Monday night in honor of his eleventh birthday anniversary at his home on Broad street. The occasion vas much enjoyed by quite a number of little folks as well as several of older growth.

-Surrounded by their children, grandchildren and a number of other relatives Mr. and Mrs. Gideon Fishel last Sunday celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of their marriage at their home on Court street. The occasion was a most pleasurable one for all participants.

-Weather conditions the past week have been right for sugar-making but during the severe weather two weeks ago the ground in the woods was frozen hard, and this retards the flow of sap. It is likely that with the mild weather now prevailing sugar-making will be on in earnest within a week.

-The Play-Singers, a musical or ganization composed of four ladies, each one an artist, will give the fifth and last number of the Normal lecture course in college chapei Friday and Saturday evenings. It is a high class recital company playing musical masterpieces, with the attractive features of solos, readings, vocal numbers, and small orchestra added. The entertainments are expected to be the best of the course.

-Dr. A. B. Detchon moved Tuesday from East Main street to Clay street. The residence vacated by him will be occupied by Mr. Welsh of the Farmers' Lumber Co. W. L. Shoaf has moved from East Main street to Scott street and John Platt and wife have taken possession of the house vacated by Mr. Shoaf, same having been purchased by them. Bert Hiner moved Wednesday from East Main street to the John Weikart residence on Lisbon street.

-Monday evening while Mrs. W. L. Bryson sat sewing in her home on North Broad street a lace curtain to the ceiling. Mrs. Bryson was parering the flames and probably sav- leader. 6:30 p. m. public ing the life of his wife and the home from destruction. The damage to furniture, etc., amounted to between $10 and $15.

-At a meeting of Council Monday uight a contract was entered into for a hook and ladder truck and 45-gallon chemical fire extinguisher together with ladders, buckets, axes, pike poles, automatic gong, etc., for use of the recently organized volunteer fire department. The equipment is quite complete and will cost $369.50. In addition to this the village owns other fire-fighting apparatus. The matter of dogs running at large was taken up and it is likely an ordinance will passed putting a stop to that sort

-This is the last year L. E. Wetmore will make maple syrup in his camp about a mile and a half southeast of the village. The camp for many years was among the best in this part of the county and every spring for more than half a century has been the mecca for village boys and girls, and people of older growth. too, as the Wetmores always took pleasure in giving visitors all the hot syrup they wanted and frequently "sugared off" for their callers. There are perhaps few Canfield people who have never visited the Wetmore camp, and many of them have made it a to get there at least once every year. The ravage of time, however, is working havoc on the sturdy maples in the camp, the tops of some of them now showing decay, the first sign that their usefulness as sap producers is approaching an end. this reason Mr. Wetmore decided to dispose of the timber, which he did. and the coming summer the trees was be felled and shipped to market. The passing of this beautiful maple grove, the scene of many a joyous outing, will cause a pang of sorrow to come to many hearts.

-A stray dog that gave evidence of suffering with rables came to town ast Saturday morning and after fighting with several dogs took up a posi-tion near the entrance of F. A. Morris' drug store. Mr. Morris had been out of the store a few minutes and when he returned and attempted to inter the dog showed his teeth and made a lunge at him. Mr. Morris and many other articles not ent the door, but did not entirely escane as the dog caught the calf of his left leg, making a black and blue spot without breaking the skin. His heavy dothing saved him from be-ing more severely bitten. Tom ank-ney attempted to drive the dog out of saved his legs from being score i Several gentlemen who were attract-Curtis took a gun and killed him. Later he shot Leland Lynn's dog which had been bitten by the stray. Another dog highly valued by his owner was attacked by the stray but it is not certain that he was bitten. However, he will be kept chained and carefully watched until all danger of rables developing has passed.

-Many villagers were out Wednes-day night viewing the eclipse of the moon. A clear sky made observations entirely satisfactory.

-On Tuesday evening Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Dickson pleasantly entertained a company of friends at their home on South Broad street.

-F. P. Lynn on Monday moved across North Broad street to the residence vacated last week by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Lynn. -The Farmers' Lumber Co. has installed notor-truck service between Canfield and Youngstown and several big loads of lumber are hauled to he city every day. -Jacob liouser died Monday afternoon at his home in the northeastern part of Canfield township, aged 76 years. Death was due to hardening of the arteries. He is survived by his widow and two children, John of property on East Main street to John Canfield and Linda at home. Deceas-Outterer, who will shortly take pos- ed was a member of Zion Reformed session, Mr. Larkin contemplates church, north of Canfield, where funeral services, conducted by Rev. I. N. Burger, were held Thursday forenoon. Interment was made in Zion

> Civil War Veteran Died Tuesday. William Webb, a well known res dent of the village, died unexpectedly Tuesday morning at his home on Depot street. While at breakfast he remarked about how well he was feeling and what a keen appetite he had. Soon after leaving the table he started to leave the room and just as he reached the front door complained of a severe pain in his head and immediately sank to the floor. He was placed upon a bed but within two hours had passed away. Dr. Coy, who was called, expressed the opinion that a blood vessel in the head had been ruptured. Mr. Webb was born in Pennsylvania Jan. 1, 1836, consequent ly was in the 79th year of his age. He was a civil war veteran, having served in Co. E, 30th Regiment, Indiana Volunteer Infantry. He was married in April, 1865, and with his family came to Canfield 42 years ago. He was a gunsmith by trade and this he followed for a long time after locating here. Surviving him are his wife and three children-John Webb and Mrs. George Konkle of Canfield and Mrs. Sarah Stough of Akron. Funeral services, held Thursday afternoon from the home of his son John on Wadsworth street, were conducted by Rev. F. H. Hill. Interment was made in the village cemetery.
